

DISCIPLINE INCIDENTS EXAMPLE SCENARIOS

1. Johnny, a 5th grader who is learning disabled, receives a 45-calendar day placement for a drug offense in October. In November, Johnny receives a 15-day out-of-school suspension for fighting. See Lines 1 and 2 below.
2. Tommy, an 8th grader, receives a 10-day out-of-school suspension in January for bringing alcohol to school. In March, Tommy receives a three-day in-school-suspension for fighting (not reported). See Line 3 below.
3. Mary, an 11th grader who is hard of hearing, brings a handgun to school in January. The conduct is found to be unrelated to the disability and Mary receives a 90-day out-of-school suspension. See Line 4 below.
4. Jane, a 10th grader, receives a three-day in-school suspension in October for bringing tobacco to school (not reported). In December she receives a four-day out-of-school suspension for smoking (not reported). In February she receives another four-day in-school suspension for fighting (not reported). (None of these offenses are reported.)
5. Sammy, a 9th grader who is behavior disordered, is found to have drugs in his locker in October and again in January. The conduct is found to be related to his disability. He receives a 45-calendar day placement for each offense. See Lines 5 and 6 below.
6. Jimmy, a 6th grader who is behavior disordered, receives a three-day out-of-school suspension in October for fighting, a four-day out-of-school suspension in November for smoking, a five-day in-school suspension in December for fighting again, a five day out-of-school suspension for alcohol possession in January, and a two-day out-of-school suspension in March for smoking again. (The incident which causes Jimmy to exceed 10 cumulative days is the five day out-of-school suspension in January; therefore, report only this incident as "Multiple short sessions." Any subsequent short-term suspensions would NOT be reported.) See Line 7 below.
7. Billy, a 7th grader, receives an 11 day in-school suspension in November for fighting. In January he is expelled from school for threatening another student with a knife. See Lines 8 and 9 below.
